BRANCH OFFICE:

First National Bank Building,

PHILADELPHIA,

Where the general business of the company is transacted, and to which all general correspondence should be addressed.

OFFICERS:

CLARENCE H CLARK, President.
JAY COOKE, Chairman Finance and Executive Committee.
HENRY D COOKE, Vice-President.
EMERSON W PEET, Secretary and Actuary.

This company, national in its character, offers, by reason of its large capital, low rates of premium and new tables, the most desirable means of insuring life yet presented to the public.

The rates of premium being largely reduced, are made as favorable to the insurers as those of the best Mutual companies, and avoid all the complications and uncertainties of notes, dividends, and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the policy holder.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented, which needonly to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as the Income producing Policy and Return premium policy. In the former, the policy holder not only secures a life insurance, payable at death, but will receive, if living, after a period of a few years, an annual income equal to ten per cent. of the par of his policy. In the latter, the company agrees to return the assured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy.

The attention of persons contemplating insuring their lives or increasing the amount of insurance they already have, is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Co.

Circulars, pamphlets and full particulars given on application to the branch office of the company, or to JOHN W ELLIS & Co.,

INDEPENDENT.

WESTERN MONTHLY, by Reed & Tuttle, Chicago. February and March numbers of this magazine just received. They appear in good style, and like the vigorous city from which the monthly emanated, it is a live institution, overflowing with the contributions of able writers, and discusses a variety of the living themes of the day. Each number is embellished with a fine steel portrait engraving. The new candidate is worhty of the public favor. $2 a year.

DEMOREST'S YOUNG AMERICA.—This interesting juvenile looks bright, quaint, and saucy as ever, in a new colored cover, that will set all the children wild with delight. Among its features are a kite, a puzzle picture, and lots of stories and charades. A Resolve club is the latest editorial novelty, and each subscriber who joins it receives a badge. No wonder the children like Young America. Published at 838 Broadway, N. Y., $1,50 per year. Send 10 cts. for a specimen.

DEMORIST'S MONTHLY.—This is justly called the Queen of Monthlies. It is the only real woman's magazine in America. It is full of good, sound sense, and practical information. It gives away money value in its valuable full sized patterns with every issue, and contains a mine of interest to every woman in its ladies club. Published at 838 Broadway, N. Y, $3 per year. Send 15 cts for a specimen.

Protective Effect of Patent Laws and the Development of Industries.

There can be no denying the trite truism that for every effect there must be a cause; and it would be as vain to look for the growth of slender spires of grass, or columnal shafts of beech or oak without the bursting of the seed, the nourishing action of the elements of the soil, and the cherishing influence of air and warmth and light, as to expect the development of arts and industries without the aid of fostering agencies to build them up atom by atom and branch by branch, even as plants grow to full fruition. When we note the advancement that has been made in the past two or three generations, both in our own and in other countries, in everything that relates to the manufacture or production of articles of utility and ornament, it is well to give at least a passing thought to the instrumentalities that have been the most active in securing such results not alone as a mere matter of interest, but to the end that, by collating and reflecting upon the experience and the teachings of the past we may be better enabled to appreciate the industrial prospects and capabilities of the future.

It is a matter well worthy of remark that the origin of a well-digested and efficient system of patent law is almost coeval with the birth of the modern era of mechanical and scientific progress and reform, and that these may be said to have exerted a reciprocal influence upon each other, for the law of patents has been moulded into more perfect shape and more liberal spirit as the arts of industry have progressed, while the latter have expanded and developed in the same ratio that originative genius has been protected in in the possession of its own creations. The truth of this proposition is best and most easily perceived by a simple comparison of the condition of the arts in countries where no protection is afforded to the inventor with that of the same lands where good patent laws exist. For instance, in Switzerland, where improvements are not guaranteed by law, few indeed are made, though in many departments of mechanical skill the Swiss are excellent workmen; but manufactures, such as that of watches, are carried on by hand, the sub division of labor being substituted for the use of machinery, and that of women and children being pressed into the service to complete the requisite quota, while in the United States the same manufacture is carried on in a better manner by the aid of patented machines, systematized in their use, and overlooked in their operation by a small number of experienced attendants. In like manner the Chinese following in practice as in faith the traditions of their forefathers, with no inducements to suggest or adopt changes and improvements, still raise water with the rude pumping apparatus worked by buffaloes which they used in the days of Confucius; while the Englishman, the Frenchman, or the Yankee, applies to the same work machines no older than the present age, called into existence by the exigencies of special cases, and stamped perhaps, with the dates of a dozen patents, each possibly in its subject matter, the offspring of a different brain, which would never have been roused to inventive activity had it not been for the promise of reward held out by the enactment of patent laws.

The success in the development of the industrial arts that has uniformly attended the practice of granting to inventors a limited monopoly of their productions, may be ascribed to the just and common sense principle which lies at the foundation of the patent law of our own and other countries, and which regards the inventor simply as a person who has something of value to sell to the public, and the public as a purchaser to the extent of its needs; and, inasmuch as no definite valuation could be made regarding a new and untried improvement, allows its originator a certain time in which to test the real wants of the community, and to appropriate to himself whatever of fame or profit may spring therefrom. Although this system may not be wholly free from defects, it is doubtless as near perfect in its operation as human legislation can be made to work, for while it protects the public, which has no right to what it has not created, and not purchase what it does not want, it also stimulates the projector to inventive effort by the hope of reward, and encourages his self reliance by making his success depend, in a great measure, upon his energy and tact in the management and introduction to notice of his inventions.—American Artisan.

Dismiss the Sheriff.

Hon Matt H Carpenter, of Wisconsin, lately delivered a temperance speech in which he argued that true temperance consists in the moderate, judicious use of intoxicating liquors. At the same time he admitted the necessity of the total abstinence movement, and signed the pledge at the close of the address. With equal consistency he attacked prohibition, declaring that all attempts to suppress the liquor traffic by law must fail. 'Dismiss your sheriffs,' he said, 'and send out your preachers.' If the Hon Matt will resolutely keep the pledge he has taken he will undoubtedly grow somewhat clearer on the temperance question. He will learn that true temperance consists in the judicious use of good things, and entire abstinence from bad things. To be truly temperate in eating, we need not eat a little carrion, a little poison, or a little of anything else that is unwholesome We will be truly temperate in eating only when we eat moderately of wholesome food, and let poisons entirely alone. The same rule applies to drinking. Of wholesome drinks we should partake moderately—from poisonous drinks we should wholly abstain. Surely the Hon Matt has had experience enough to know that all alcoholic liquors are poisonous.

The Hon Matt H is senator of the United States, and has long enjoyed a brilliant reputation as a lawyer. We wonder if it has ever occurred to him that it is quite as impossible to make Christians of horse thieves by law, to change the hearts of counterfeiters by legal enactments, or convert burglars by statute, as it is to regenerate liquor sellers by similar means. Why don't he say in reference to all criminals, 'dismiss your sheriffs, and send out your preachers?'

We are about out of patience with our friends the enemy, who still indulge in the stale and silly twaddle about the folly of abandoning moral suasion and attempting to make men pious by penal statute. For the first five thousand times we heard such talk, we bore it uncomplainingly, but it sounds rather old now, even when it comes from the eloquent lips of the Hon Matt H. We don't propose to regenerate criminals by prosecuting and punishing them. We only intend to make them harmless. We have no control over their hearts and thoughts, but when their acts conflict with the highest interests of society, and destroy health, life and property, we propose to interfere and punish them, that society may be protected. If an incendiary should fire the house of the Hon Matt, and somebody should propose to arrest the villain, the Hon Matt would hardly plead for the dismissal of the sheriff and the employment of a preacher. Why then should he so plead when we propose to arrest and punish the villain who applies the incendiary torch of intemperance to men's stomachs and brains? Are men of less value than the houses they live in? We do not propose to stop the work of moral suasion. When the time comes, [and may God speed it!] that incorrigible liquor sellers, as well as incorrigible horse thieves, will be sent to the penitentiary, we hope a faithful chaplain will be there to try moral suasion on them. And when their term expires we hope their hearts will be so changed that they will not desire to return to liquor selling. But, if such should not be the case, and they adopt the same criminal course again, we shall be in favor of sending them back for a still longer trial of moral suasion under the pastorate of a penitentiary chaplain. We are decidedly in favor of both sheriffs and preachers.—Temple Visitor

An Indictment.

The history of King Alcohol is a history of shame and corruption, of cruelty and crimes.

He has taken the glow of health from the cheek, and placed there the reddish hue of the wine cup.

He has taken the lustre from the eye, and made it dim and blood shot.

He has taken beauty and comeliness from the face, and left it ill shaped and bloated.

He has taken strength from the limbs and made them weak and tottering.

He has taken firmness and elasticity from the step and made it faltering and treacherous.

He has taken vigor from the arm and left flabbiness and weakness.

He has taken vitality from the blood, and filled it with poison and the seeds of disease and death.

He has transformed this body, fearfully and wonderfully made, God's masterpiece of mechanism, into a vile, loathsome, stinking mass of humanity!

He has entered the brain, the temple of thought, dethroned reason, and made it reel with foolery.

He has taken the beam of intelligence from out the eye, and left in exchange the stupid state of idiocy and dullness

He has taken the impress of ennobled manhood from the face and left the mark of sensuality and brutishness.

He has bribed the tongue to utter vileness and drivelling.

He has taken cunning from the hands and turned them from deeds of usefulness to become instruments of brutality and murder.

He has broken the ties of friendship and planted the seeds of enmity.

He has made abolitionists sons and daughters the breakers of hearts and the destroyers of homes.

He has made the kind, indulgent father a brute, a tyrant, and a murderer.

He has transformed the kind and affectionate mother into a very fiend of brutish incarceration.

He has taken the luxuries from off the table, and compelled men to cry on account of famine and to beg for bread.

He has stolen men's palaces and given them hovels in exchange.

He has robbed men of valuable acres and given them not a decent burial place in death.

He has filled our streets and highways with violence and lawlessness.

He has complicated our laws and crowded our courts.

He has filled to overflowing houses of correction and penitentiaries.

He has peopled with his multitudes our poor houses.

He has straightened us for room in our insane asylums.

He has taken away faith, hope and charity, yea, all that is lovely and of good report, and given despair, infidelity, enmity, and all the emotions and deeds of wickedness.

He has banished Christ from the heart and created hell within.

He has wrecked and enfeebled the bodies, shattered and destroyed the minds and imperilled and damned the souls of our fellow men.

These are counts of our indictment. Let the world judge the truth.

'D'ye want any clams?'

This question was addressed by a ragged but bright-eyed, intelligent looking boy, with a basket on his arm, to a couple of rather foppish looking young men sauntering along the main street of Elderton, a beautiful Yankee village, or rather town, on the seashore, not far from the classic city of Bossville.

'No, my young lad,' answered one of the tops.

The boy turned away, and at the same time showed a part of his shirt hanging from a rent in his trowsers. [Everybody called them trowsers in those days, my young reader, though they are now called pantaloons.] At this moment a party of the village lads and lasses approached the spot.

The younger of the two fops in the doorway, thinking to show his wit at the fisher-boy's expense, for the admiration of the party, cried:

'Stop, my boy! I'll give you a dollar for that rag there,' pointing to the fluttering garment—the tattered flag of poverty, alike in every clime!

There was of course a titter from the bystanders, but the boy, nothing daunted, with a sly smile on his shrewd face, took an old rusty knife out of his pocket, walked up to the would-be-wags and sawing off the morsel of dingy cotton, offered it to him, saying:

'There it is then! Give us your dollar?'

The laugh straightway changed sides, and the fop was forced to hand the boy his well earned dollar.

'That little fellow will be a rich man yet,' exclaimed the elder of the two young men, as the lad went whistling up the street. The other made no reply, but seized the first chance to disappear.

That ragged fisher boy was Seth Keene, and that dollar was the first stone of the foundation upon which, in after years, were raised the fortune of the Keene family.

Do You Advertise?

While standing on the square the other day, we heard a conversation between a prominent merchant and a well to do farmer, who had just met, After a shake of the hands and the usual remarks, the merchant said: 'Where do you buy your goods now, and why don't you come and see me when you come to town?' 'Well,' said the farmer, 'I never go where I am not invited, because I don't know whether I am wanted or not.' The merchant seeming rather surprised, as if he had offended the farmer or his wife, as they had not been to his store for a very long time, said: 'I invite any and all to come and see us.' 'But,' says the farmer, 'I read the weekly papers, and have looked over every column and have not seen your advertisement, and I do not know where to find you. I supposed you had sold out and retired from business.' At this point we were called away and did not hear the balance of the conversation, but would suggest the idea to our merchants the propriety of advertising judiciously, to let your friends and the public know where you are what you have to sell. If the goods are worth the money, let the people know it. Live and let live. A word to the wise is sufficient.

A bill in the Georgia legislature appropriating $10,000 to encourage immigration into the state was defeated, the members not wishing to encourage the settlement among them of the d—d Dutch and Irish. These legislators are the allies of the northern democracy, which claims to be the special friend of the newly arrived foreigner.

Massillon, Wednesday, March 24.

Constitutional Amendment--YES.

Congress has adopted a law which does away with all political distinctions in the District of Columbia, and the word white has lost its force there in this connection. The president has ratified the law by his signature—just as A J would not do.

Our legislature has under consideration the remodeling of the congressional districts of this state. From the published scheme of this project it has the appearance of the best jerryman ler the democracy can make for the party. Giraffes, camels and such beauties may be looked for—anything, no matter how irrelevant for the public good, to promote the interest of the cop dems. The end justifies the means.

Hope our Bub will keep sweet his serene temper, and not allow the way things are going to eternal smash about Washington—since A J left—to at all disturb his equanimity. He seems to think all is gushing about the capital, for nothing at all is right. Like the Millerites he sees the end near at hand, and we hope he will have his robes prepared and his wings unsinged by the blue blazes of brimstone, so that he can flop them like a big eagle, and ascend to the third story, at least, of the democratic heaven—wherever that is. There be can sing and shout hallelujas forever to the god of the white man, with narry a nigger to mar the indescribable beauty of the transcendently white clysian of true blue democrats. But if he becomes powerful mad about politics and things we shall not be responsible for the consequences.

Recently Miss Anna Dickinson, now lecturing in the west, was anxious to fill one of her appointments, but the trains had all gone and she was too late, so she hired a locomotive for $100, ascended the engine with the engineer and rushed to the place for her lecture, which she reached in due time. That young lady can take care of herself.

The Holier than Thou party—that is the copperhead democracy—are in a bad way about the 15th amendment to the constitution, which guarantees the carrying out of the sentiment of the great declaration, where it says all men, in certain rights, are placed on an equality. The idea haunts them continually, for at night they dream about it, and by day they swear at it; at church they pray against it—that is, if they go to church and pray—and at the elections they vote against it. The sons of Ham are more trouble to them than the armies of aliens, and legions of the party will shake worse than did the knees of Belshazzar when they spy a negro afar off, if by any possibility he has a vote in his hand During the war this party decried the negro troops as useless, but now one of these black men voting for Grant produces consternation in their camp. If one African can thus frighten a thousand cops and two put ten thousand to flight, what will be the awful result when near a million of black voters march to the polls singing,

John Brown's soul is marching on,
Glory, Hallelujah.

And vote for such men as Sumner and Wendall Phillips and other noted radicals to be placed in the highest offices of the nation? If that won't ruin the country what will? If it will stand such a test it is politically impeccable.

Railroad Report.—The annual report of the P. Ft. W. & C. R. R. appears in last week's Pittsburg papers, the meeting of the stockholders having been held in that city on the 17th inst. Many points of interest appear in the report to all which we cannot for want of room refer. In the matter of finances the officers report an increase of revenue, while there was a decrease of expenses during the last year. The earnings of the main line are set down at $8,041,180 70, exceeding those of 1867 by $790,051 74—quite a satisfactory result. The capital stock is stated to be $11,500,000. Cash on hand $62,132. In the matter of branches to the road the report contains the following statement:

The Massillon and Cleveland railroad company, an organization recently perfected, is now engaged in building a railroad about twelve miles in length, from Massillon, on the main line of your road to Clinton, on the Akron branch, which will open a new line to Cleveland over the latter road, for the country contiguous to the main line between Orrville and Alliance, besides developing a region along the proposed railroad, which is known to be peculiarly rich in coal deposits. The present product of the mines now open in the coal fields through which this road is being built is fifteen hundred tons per day, most of which reaches the Cleveland market by canal. With a view of insuring the development of this business, and enlarging the traffic over the Akron branch, between Clinton and Hudson (twenty-seven miles,) your Board has subscribed for one thousand shares ($50,000) of the capital stock of the Massillon and Cleveland railroad company. The whole road is under contract and will be in use by the first of July of this year.

The directors and managers are availing the road of the various improvements made in that branch of active industry, and among these experiments is the use of steel rails, of which they give a most favorable account. Business is so rapidly accumulating that they are constantly keeping in view the idea of having a double track, which work is to gradually be accomplished, as their means warrant.

The amount of tonnage tranported during the year was 1,500,000 tons, and the aggregate of passengers 1,411,077. We understand the report to say that the managers have made no entangling alliances with other parties; nothing further having been done that will squint that way, than to arrange with other roads for the public convenience. The following is the present board of directors:

George W Cass, Pittsburg; Springer Harbaugh, Pittsburg; J Edgar Thompson, Philadelphia, Pa.; John L. Dawson, New Geneva, Fayette county, Pa.; J F D Lanier, New York; Louis H Meyer, New York; Samuel J Tilden, New. York; Pliny Hoagland, Fort Wayne, Ind.; Jesse L Williams, Fort Wayne, Ind.. Kent Jarvis, Massillon, Ohio; R R Springer, Cincinnati, Ohio; Hon John Sherman, Mansfield Ohio; W B Ogden, Chicago, Ill.

If Mr. A. T. Stewart, the wealthy and successful merchant of New York, could not be secretary of the treasury he lets the world know that he can do something else that is very useful. He has decided on building a hotel for the working women of that city, of whom there are great numbers. It is to cost $2,000,000, will be 198 by 205 feet in size and be fire proof—constructed of iron. Mr. S. also proposes to erect a similar hotel for working men, both of which he designs shall be carried on at the smallest possible expense. This is a very benevolent movement on his part, and shows that he remembers the laboring class on whose efforts all his wealth and that of every other man is based.

Washington Correspondence.

Washington, March 19, 1869.

Secretary Boutwell intimates an inspiration of the Grant temper in his reply to Gen Spinner. U S Treasurer. The General magnanimously suggests to the secretary the propriety of all the heads of bureaus, himself included, tendering their resignations, to relieve him from the emparassment of proposing the matter in any case where change was desired. The secretary laconically and significantly replies that that is not at all necessary! In other words: "When I wish any of you gentlemen to go, I shall not need the way preparped for me to let you know it."

Postmaster General Cresswell is not behind. He has been pressed by congressmen in behalf of applicants for clerkships. There are no places. was his reply. But you must make places, was often the rejoinder. My friend must have a position. "Very well, So-and-So, put Mr A's name on your list." "What list is that?" "Why, it is a list of congressmen who will have places made in order to accommodate their friends. By and by when the appropriation runs out, perchance, and I have occasion to ask for more, and you all reply to me 'economy,' 'retrenchment,' I will read this list to you."

E B Washburne vacated the secretaryship of state Wednesday noon, for Hamilton Fish, having, as his last official act, countersignsd the commission of the latter as secretary of state. Secretary Fish reciprocated the service by making his first official act the countersigning of the commission of his predecessor as Minister to France. Secretary Boutweil, it is said, has invited W A Richardson, a Boston lawyer and judge of probate, and a personal friend of the secretary, to become the additional assistant secretary. He has arrived and accepted the position. Monsieur Tonson come again! I had supposed that the treasury was long since rid of S M Clark, the late Sup't of the printing bureau of the treasury; but it seems he had another office, viz, disbursing clerk of the construction bureau of the treasury department, which he managed to retain until Secretary Boutwell took charge of the department. The president has nominated Mrs Van Lew to be postmistress at Richmond, Va., in consideration of services rendered by her during the rebellion, in sending her slaves through the lines with valuable information to General Grant, sacrificing all her property, &c. This is not the half she deserves; and yet the act is a noble one on the part of the president. He braves both conventionalism and a host of politicians who have votes, all for the sake of making some return to this patriotic woman. A M Gangewer, for several of the last years chief clerk of the 3d auditors bureau, and R L B Clarke of Iowa, for some years a law clerk in the office of the 2d comptroller, and a brother of Grace Greenwood, are candidates for the 3d Auditorship. The first mentioned is an excellent, sound man, and has the advantage of the utmost familiarity with the business of the bureau. Ebenezer D. Bassett, a colored man connected with the colored high school in Philadelphia, is a prominent applicant for the mission to Hati, and is recommended by the national committee of colored men, and by Fred Douglass, Geo T Downing, J M Langston, and others. Col Balloch, of the freedman's bureau, and A Watson, are prominent among the candidates for the Washington post office. The latter claims it on the grounds 1st, that he is a republican—in that there is nothing singular—and 2d, that he is the inventor of a "self sealing stamped newspaper wrapper," by the sale of which, he alleges the department has cleared $160,000, and not given him a cent. Worse grounds for places than that are common. Horace Porter, of Gen. Grant's late staff, Brevet Brig Gen and Major of the ordnance corps, has been appointed private secretary to the president. He is said to be a very fit selection. The mammoth ox that has been on exhibition here for weeks, presented to General Grant, has been started at last for the president's farm in Missouri, in charge, I have been told, of a man named Tulloch, who had charge of an other big thing lately, the inauguration ball, which proved a moustrous failure. May the monster ox turn out better in his hands. Bishop Wayman, of the African M E church, and several others from Baltimore, called upon Secretary Boatwell Tuesday, to urge the appointment of Judge Bond as collector of the port of Baltimore. The secretary received the delegation kindly, and promised to take the request and application of the delegation under consideration. John Wilson, 3d auditor of the treasury has resigned. Dr. Sharpe, Mrs. Grant's brother in-law, late postmaster of Richmond, has given the required $20,000 bonds for his new office of marshal of the District, and entered upon his duties. Mayor Bowen was one of his bondsmen.

Tuesday, Mr. Cullom of Ill., presented the memorial of Porter C Bliss, and George W Masterman, relative to their imprisonment in Paraguay by President Lopez, and their subsequent imprisonment on board the United States steamers, Wasp and Guerriere. In connection with the memorial, Mr Cullum offered a resolution providing for the appointment of a select committee of five, to whom the memorial shall be referred, with instruction to inquire into all the circumstances, the conduct of the late American minister to Paraguay, and of the Admiral commanding the South Atlantic squadron. Referred to the committee on foreign affairs.

The house resolution to adjourn on the 26th inst, has been laid on the table in the senate, with the understanding that it will be considered when the public business is in such a condition that a day for adjournment can be fixed.

The Copperhead Press on the Administration.

The copperhead press at the present moment reminds us of a pack of snarling curs drivch from a bone. They set up an impotent howl over everything done by the party which is master of the situation. They tell their ragged, hungry followers that they must open the battle against the administration, no matter under what plea. If no reason can be found for it, never mind—open the battle. Without principles that will give them a foothold they rave away, and, instead of a sensible fight, they remind us of a lot of Celestials, with their gongs, lanterns and antics, giving us a burlesque representation of war.

When Grant first came into office they charged him with desiring to dictate entirely as to who should fill the numerous offices in the gift of the government; now they accuse him of weakness and of having surrendered to the senate and the heads of departments the appointment of all civil officers; and yet President Grant only does exactly what he said he intended to do from the first—turn over to the head of every department the selection of the officers appertaining to that department. It would be an impossibility for one man to attend to the crowd of office seekers who infest the capitol. He could not be president and office-waiter at the same moment. It is an absolute necessity that the business should be managed as Grant suggests and as he now acts.

How the departments will be handled is best shown by the improvements in the army and navy. Retrenchment, concentration and effectiveness are the rule. No drones in the hives, of any section, should and doubtless will be the aim of the administration. Already the army is preparing for the proper reduction. The navy is to be concentrated at Key West, where it will be within easy reach for foreign complications. If we may judge of the other departments by what we already obin the army and navy, we think the copperhead snarlers will find ample room to spit out their come vertom. The government is on the right track, and the best proof is that the snakes are hissing.—N Y Herald.

The aspiration of the Tribune, expressed a week or more ago, has been realized. The first bill signed by our new president was the one renewing the pledge of the government to the world that our debt should be honestly paid as it was fairly contracted. It is an auspicious beginning for the administration. Long before General Grant's term of office shall expire, we look to see the national finances on so sound a basis that men will wonder how a question about the payment of our debt could ever have been raised. Meantime, let us remember the cheering fact—Grant's first signature to a bill of congress is to the one to strengthen the public credit.

Good.—On Saturday last, Mr Rukenbrod, editor of the Salem Republican and the able and efficient representative from Columbiana county, introduced a bill to amend the law upon gaming, the main feature of which, are to include billiards, and billiard tables, which the present law exempts. It also defines a minor to be a person under the age of twenty-one years, and in case the party tried is found guilty, the fine is to be paid into the common school fund of the county.—Mahoning Courier.

"RIVERSIDE"

Lots For Sale.

That beautiful tract of land known as the

FAIR GROUND,

on the bluff west of Massillon and on the bank of the Tuscarawas river, together with joining lands has just been divided into lots, which are recorded as the Riverside Addition to the town of Massillon.

The lots are of good size and will be sold at such easy terms of payment as to place a home within the reach of all. The beauty of the location is unsurpassed, and we believe it is a conceded fact that a location on the west bank of a running stream of water is always more healthy than one on the east bank.

It is apparent to all that the business and population of Massillon are very rapidly increasing; it is also apparent that public attention is directed to the west side of the river as the most desirable point for a home now in the market or that probably ever will be in the market again. We think therefore that it is safe to predict that in a very few years this grand addition

RIVERSIDE,

Will be covered over with dwelling houses, which will be occupied by a large proportion of the busy citizens of the city of Massillon.

Every man who has a family or ever expects to have one ought to have a home in his own right, then he will be independent, if not rich. A better opportunity will never again be offered of securing one so dssirable, so cheap; and so easily paid for.

Also a very desirable out lot, of about eight acres, adjoining Massillon on the Canton road, will divide well into three or four pasture lots. Also some beautiful lots in the east part of the city.

The plats may be examined, and lots selected at my store. [292] P. G. ALBRIGHT.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its compo-sition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Bilious Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

LOCAL MATTERS.

HASWELL, correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, in writing from New Philadelphia last week, gives quite an interesting account of the early efforts of the fathers of Methodism in this region. The names of some of the preachers given are familiar to us, having heard them preach at private houses in Columbiana county nearly or quite half a century ago. Among these names are those of John Sommerville and Curtis Goddard. When they preached in those days it required four weeks to get around the circuit of their appointments; and these circuits sometimes extended from western Pennsylvania through two or three tiers of counties in Ohio. Those old preachers were earnest, sincere men, and among the sins they forcibly denounced were those of wearing rings, ruffles and other gaudy apparel. A Methodist preacher could then be easily distinguished from common sinners, for they all wore coats of the Quaker cut—sometimes called shad-bellies—and traveled on horseback, having saddle-bags in which to carry their bibles, hymn-books—in short their entire library of divinity.

MR. KING, the man who has been keeping what is now called the City Hotel near the depot, was arrested on Friday last on a charge of shooting another man through the arm on Thursday night. The nature of the evidence was such that justice Warner fined him $40 with costs, and imprisonment for 30 days in jail. Reports say that he (King) was abusing his wife, and the other man interfered for her protection, and the result was he got shot. Some surmise that whisky had control and brought on the trouble. Its use frequently has such effects.

Later accounts say that King was sent up for abusing his wife, and that when his time is out, he is liable to arrest and punishment for shooting Mr. Beichy in the arm. He fired twice at Mr B and once at his wife, and his design was (report says) to kill both of them.

BRO. WATSON of the Minerva Commercial, in last weeks issue, states that Bro Garrison of the Alliance Monitor will be a candidate for nomination for representative of Stark county to the state legislature. If editors and such must bear a part of the burden of government there seems no reason why Bro. G. should not do his part—or at least try.

A North Carolina judge has decided a lawful fence to be, "horse high, bull strong, and pig tight." Bully judge.

NEW GOODS.—A racket incident to opening bales and boxes of new goods at McLain. Dangler & Co's store the other day announced the arrival of their first installment for this time.

The co-operative grocery was sold out the other day, building and all, to Mr J Arnold, who takes possession on the first of the coming month. Mr A is an active business man, and his enterprise will prove a success.

The load of trunks and bales at Hookway's the other day is a very significant indidication that his stock has been replenished with seasonable goods. It would be well to give him a call.

T. S. WOODS, Esq., a very youthful man, editor of the Ohio Patriot at New Lisbon—about the oldest paper in this part of the country, having been in existance sixty-one years—was married on the 9th inst to MISS KATE G POTTER, relict of the late judge Potter. Bro W has baffled the wiles of the girls for a reasonable length of time, but the widow secured him at last. Widows know how to inveigle these young chaps. Much joy to the two made one.

THE LARGEST STOCK OF

CARPETS

Ever brought to Stark co., at

McLain, Dangler & Co's.

We were favored with a visit from Mr. David Gaily, of New Lisbon, one day last week, who came here on business connected with the malleable iron works of that place. He gives a favorable account of the prospects of the new establishment, and reports that it will be in active operation in a few weeks.

The man who advertises liberally is the early bird that catches the worm. The other man who don't advertise may scratch the gravel, but will in nine cases out of ten, never even smell the worm. Now if it is worms—big worms—that men are after, in the shape of prosperity, advertise in the Independent, and your reward will be sure.

Bro Watson of the Minerva Commercial is not quite as old as he he will be if he lives forty years. Two score more years on his head would make him hesitate long before engaging in a newspaper controversy with a woman. He may hold his own but we are afraid of sich.

The Anti-Slavery Standard, now nearly thirty years of age, is one of the very best weekly papers in the country. As it ever did, the Standard takes the highest ground in favor of human liberty; and weekly it publishes the great and leading ideas in favor of the right uttered by such men as Wendell Phillips, Charles Sumner and their compeers, whose thoughts are beacon lights to the nation, and the wisdom of whose rational philosophy is the standard to which the nation is fast rising. Finely printed and very tastefully and methodically arranged in matter are qualities which commend the appearance of the Standard to all friends of good taste, but this is only the casket which contains the diamonds of thought so well presented by the editors and correspondents of the paper, while the selections are chaste, elevated and encouraging to all that is good. If all who read and admire the Standard are necessarily bad, or even deluded people, there is certainly a large crowd, which seems to be increasing indefinitely.

BANNER OF LIGHT, of Boston, has been published twelve years, and from indications appears to be in prosperous circumstances. It is the principal organ of the spiritualists in this country, though there are several other able weekly advocates of the cause. Without contradiction the Banner is a very ably conducted paper generally having eight pages filled with well written original matter; and its circulation is weilding a vast influence, for there are those who read it the world knows not of, while thousands of others glory in its teachings. The correctness of its moral instructions are unexceptionable.

SOMETHING of a time was had one day last week before the tp. trustees, by parties interested in having a ditch or drain made for the use of certain swamp lands owned by Samuel Lahm, Esq., of Canton. To make this land useful for cultivation it is indispensable to have it drained, and Mr. L. has long been trying to effect this, but others interested have been lawing with him, or he with them, about it, for several years, and this controversy has left the swamp as it always was. Exactly what the bone of contention is we do not know, but the report is, that it is about thus: One party wants the drain (which will have to be a long and expensive one) to go eastward, or somewhere beyond Canton, while the other desires it to connect with Sippo Lake near this place. The action had last Thursday, we presume was not final. P.S Decided against the ditch.

ACTIVE arrangements are making by our township and municipal parties for the coming spring election. The usual quota of township and city officers are to be chosen by the people on the first Monday of April, and in addition to officers elected by the city last year are a city clerk, street commissioner, and chief engineer of the fire department. The republicans choose their candidates on next Saturday.

RAPID and extensive mutations in the weather during the last few weeks have developed an indefinite amount of sneezing, coughing, catarrhs, colds and like ailments. Part of these troubles are under our own control if we but knew how to manage them. At least we can alleviate and shorten them by regulating work for the stomach. When trouble comes in many of these shapes it follows in most cases from giving that organ too much work. If anything is wrong give the stomach rest for a day or so by light eating, and often nothing is much better, and a short time will show the advantages of this treatment. TAKE SOMETHING, is in almost everybody's mouth, if we are unwell. Nature, the physical system, and especially the suffering stomach, say, TAKE NOTHING, and experience proves the wisdom of their admonitions. Some may say that this is cheating the doctors, but we claim that it is helping them.

SPRING.—It is popular to say that spring begins with the first of March, but any one who has seen forty or fifty Marches has long since been rid of that delusion, especially in this climate. That season don't commence by authority of the sun and the almanac before March 21st, and often after that we have a winter. Last week we had it rough here with rain and snow, and freezing, and thawing, but Sunday made nature appear in a better mood, for the sun shone brightly.

NEW SCHOOLHOUSE.—The people connected with the German Catholic church are about to put up a new and larger schoolhouse for the use of their children, as the present one is much too small. Mechanics and contractors are requested to make bids for the work up to March 27th.

LARGE CORNFIELD.—Two colored men, Wm. Holliday and Henry Reed, have rented a farm of A C Wales, Esq., situated near Navarre, consisting of one hundred acres, for the purpose of raising a crop of corn the coming season. All the division fences are removed, and the entire tract is to consist of one field. It may not be as large as some of the western cornfields, but is considerably bigger than anything in that way in this vicinity. The lesees are working men and will make it pay.

A certain noted grogshop in this city has issued a card to which we shall pay some attention next week. We shall endeavor to do justice to the subject; and if drunkard making is an honorable business, sustained by right and fortified by scripture, those who make drunkards need not fear anything we can say.

ENTERPRISE.—In some of our exchanges we notice weekly reports of marriage licenses sold by the probate judge, by giving the names of the prospective firms for better or for worse. Not to be outdone we might take a step in advance, though it may be deemed a hazardous one, and boldly announce that in the next thirty days there will be some thirty bornings in Stark county. Of course we don't give full particulars in advance, but if any of our cotemporaries feel adequate to the task they may do so and then—we surrender.

ELDER THOMAS, of the Disciples church, who preached here for that denomination some two years ago, is going to remove to this city about the first proximo. It is the design, we presume, to have regular preaching at their church.

IN addition to goods in the line of music, consisting of a great variety of instruments and books, Mr. M. D. Higley also manufactures and keeps for sale a decidedly improved music stand, considerable numbers of which he has disposed of. He has received several orders from Pittsburgh and elsewhere, and where these stools have been introduced they appear to render satisfaction.

PERSONAL.—Mr. J. McClymonds, now of Cleveland, formerly cashier of the Union National Bank, returned to his family on a brief visi, last Saturday.

Mr Wm Bucher, many years a citizen of Massillon, but since of Toledo, was here a few days ago. We understand Mr B has gone to Cleveland where he is engaged in business.

Wm C Earl, Esq., of Toledo, is spending a few days here among his relatives and old neighbors. His visits are always welcome.

James Harsh, Esq., who has been practicing law at Finley, O., expects to remove here the first of April and follow his profession.

MR. HENRY WILLIAMS, who has engaged a room in the new City Hall, but which is not yet ready for occupation, has already received a portion of his stock, consisting of queensware, wall paper, &c., a portion of which has been sold to our citizens.

Latest arrival of boots and shoes at Wert & Ball's. Call and be supplied with good stock of the latest information.

WE are informed by the president of the Methodist Mite Society, that over fifty dollars were cleared at the oyster supper given by them at Mr. Geo. Willison's, on the evening of the 15th inst. Also, that another supper will be given at the residence of Mrs. Earl, on Monday evening next. As the season for oysters will soon be over, we presume the oyster-loving public will require no urging to find their way to Mrs. Earl's on that evening.

The following are the appointments of elder and ministers for the Canton district just made at the conference at New Philadelphia—at least as well as we can decypher them.

Presiding Elder, J Williams; H H Sinsabaugh, Canton; W Lynch, Massillon; J W Shirer, Greentown; J Johnson, Alliance; W Pittenger, Mt Union; W K Brown, Damascoville; J M Swan, Waynesburgh; J Winters, Sandyville; J R Roller, Carrollton; W C P Hamilton and J F Huddleston, Malvern; L S Keagle, Hanover; J M Bray and A L Lane, Malboro; G W Baker, Leavittsville; Roxford to be supplied; S B Hudson, New Cumberland; J F Jones, New Lisbon; O N Hartsorn, President of Mt Union College.

The velocipede man is coming to our city, we are informed, and proposes to teach the art and mystery of riding the two tandem cycles in a room of the Stone Block. Hope he may be liberly patronized.

MR. LEHMAN, the bookbinder, has just received a new stock of material, and is prepared to do work for our citizens in good style, and at short notice. His work is substantially and well done, as Mr. L. is a good mechanic and understands his occupation thoroughly.

Across the canal, Mr. S. Loew, clothing merchant, has just received a new spring stock, among the first in the field, and is now prepared to fill the bills of customers with anything in his line, from an entire suit to the smallest article of a gentleman's wear. Call and see his extensive stock.

Work on the new railroad buildings is about to commence immediately, as the contractor (a gentleman from Pittsburgh) is here. It will soon be lively times for mechanics and laboring men. Material in the shape of stone and brick is or soon will be on the ground.

ALLEGANY Musical Journal is a new monthly, having for its speciality the work of promulgating a love for music by forming singing associations—or in its own words—the Journal is a new musical monthly, explains a mode upon which interesting musical associations can be formed in every town. The idea is certainly a good one, and were it more generally carried out, the music teacher would have much more to do in aiding to develop taste and culture in this divine art. The Germans have these associations, and they keenly appreciate their advantages. The little work is published at Friendship, N. Y. by Baxter & Co., at 50 cts a year.

IF Monday's cantlea in the weather was part of the equinoxial storm, it was quite white enough to challenge the admiration of the fiercest democrat, for the snow fell, a regular south easter, thick and fast most of the day. But it was not born to stay.

Last week we told the reader twice over that the Tuscarawas Chronicle was removed to Dennison; but it turns out that Mr Pittenger is located at Ubrichsville. The paper is much improved in appearance, having a full dress of new types and other fixings.

It looked dark and was quiet at all the churches Sunday evening, excepting the Episcopal, which was pretty well filled with hearers.

Whoever read our last paper had a joke on us, for no less than two local articles appeared in type twice over. Printers mistakes.

The canal has been drained here for the purpose of making repairs. This is good opportunity for catching fish, and sometimes very successful hauls are made.

THE GREAT

ZINGARI BITTERS.

A Safe Blood Purifier,
A Splendid Tonic,
A Pleasant Beverage.

A CERTAIN CURE
AND
Preventive of Diseases.

The Zingari Bitters are compounded from a prescription of the celebrated Egyptian Physician Dr Cheopsus, who, after years of trial and experiment discovered the Zingara Herb—the most remarkable vegetable production, the earth, perhaps has ever yielded—certainly the most effective in the cure of disease. It, in combination with the other valuable properties of which the Zingari Bitters is composed, will cure

Dyspepsia, Fever and Ague, Billious Fever, Cholic, Colds, Bronchitis, Consumption in its first stage. Flatulency, Nervous Debility, Female Complaints, Rheumatism, Dysentery, Acute and Chronic Diarrhoea, Cholera Morbus, Cholera, Typhoid and Typhus Fever, Yellow Fever, Scrofula, Diseases of the Kidneys, Habitual Costiveness. &c., &c.

In the prevention and cure of the above diseases, it has never been known to fail, as thousands of our most prominent citizens throughout the country will testify. Let the afflicted send for circular containing testimonials and certificates of those who have been cured after their cases have been pronounced hopeless by our best physicians.

Special Notices.

Manhood.

In the young and rising generation, the vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lack-lustre eye and emaciated frame, and the impossibility of a application to mental effort show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed form school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from the ordinary diversions of the ever-changing scenes of the city, the body so much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and manly exercise, thoughts are turned inward upon themselves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. After the increase of appetite has grown by what it feeds on, the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind made go so fascinating a change from child to woman is looked for in vain: the parents heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu, for weaknesss arising from excess or early indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to exertion, loss of power, loss of memory, difficulty of breathing, general weakness, horror of disease, weak nerves, trembling, dreadful horror of death, night sweats, cold feet, wakefulness, dimness of vision, languor, universal lassitude of the muscular system, often enormous appetite with dyspeptic symptoms, hot hands flushing of the body, dryness of the skin, pallid countenance and eruptions on the face, pain in the back, heaviness of the eyelids, frequently black spots flying before the eyes, with temporary suffusion and loss of sight, want of attention, great debility, restlessness, with horror of sobiety. Nothing is more desirable to such patients than solitude, and nothing they more dread, for fear of themselves; no repose of manner, no earnestness, no speculation, but a hurried transition from one question to another.

These symptoms if allowed to go on—which this medicine invariably removes—soon follow loss of power, fatuity, and epileptic fits, in one of which the patient may expire.

During the superintendance of Dr Wilson at the Bloomingdale asylum, this sad result occurred to two patients; reason had for a time left them and both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes, and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases, insanity and consumption! The records of the insane asylums and the melancholy deaths by consumption bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In lunatic asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is quite sodden and destitute of the slightest ever vivacity. Should a sound at the voice occur, it is rarely articulate,

"With woeful measures wan despair
Low sullen sounds their greif beguile."

Whilst we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of chemistry for the removal of the consequences. Helmbold's Highly concentrated fluid extract of Buchu. It is a anchor of hope to the surgeon and patient, and this is the testimony of all who have used or prescribed it.

Sold by druggists everywhere. Price—$1.25 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $6.50. Delivered to any address. Describe symptoms in all communications. Address H T HELMBOLD, drug and Chemical Warehouse, 594 Broadway, N.Y.

None are genuine unless done up in steel engraved wrapper, with fac-simile of my chemical warehouse, and signed 296-2m H. T. HELMBOLD.

A Malarious Month.

Marce that gives us a new president, is also the inaugural month of many harrassing disorders. Entangled in its fogs are the seeds of coughs, colds, and of that alteration of frigidity and fire, more widely known than admired, called fever and ague. The only way to avoid these little unpleasantnesses, is to render the system strong enough to fight off the atmospheric poison that produces them, and the best way to endow it with this repellent power is to tone it with Hostetters Stomach Bitters.

If a wayfarer were credibly informed that a ruffian was waiting at the corner, he would doubtless turn in his tracks, and take a safer route to his destination. With just about the same amount of trouble, the attacks of diseases prevalent at this season may be evaded. Nay, the trouble will be less, for drug stores lie in every one's route, and every respectable druggist in the union keeps on hand Hostetters Bitters. The article is a staple of trade, and it would be as easy to find a grocery without sugar, as the store of an apothecary without this popular tonic remedy.

In view of the experience of the nation with regard to the article, during the space of twenty years, it seems almost unnecessary to recapitulate its merits to Americans. But as our population is increasing at the rate of a couple of millions annually, in the natural way and by immigration, it may be as well to hint to the rising generation and new arrivals, (the old settlers know all about it,) that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the most wholesome and potent vegetable tonic ever manufactured that it is a specific for debility, dyspepsia, biliousness, and miasmatic fevers; that it prevents as well as cures these complaints and their complications; that it is not bad to take, and is absolutely, harmless. 296 4w

YOU ALL

HAVE HEARD OF

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in 1825.

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different preparations now called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or anything like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for

Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA,
Nervous Debility,
JAUNDICE,
Diseases of the Kidneys,
ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,
and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate disease of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

Hoofland's German Bitters

Is entirely vegetable, and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtues are extracted from them by a scientific chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

Hoofland's German Tonic

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with pure Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in cases where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These Remedies are the best

Blood Purifiers

ever known, and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your digestive organs in order; keep your condition, by the use of these remedies, and no disease will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action, in the system.
Yours truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES THOMPSON,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1836.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.

Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates street.

CAUTION.

Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. The genuine have the signature of C. M. Jackson on the front of the outside wrapper of each bottle, and the name of the article blown in each bottle. All others are counterfeit.

Price of the Bitters, $1 00 per bottle; Or, a half dozen for $5 00.
Price of the Tonic, $1 50 per bottle; Or, a half dozen for $7 50.

The tonic is put up in quart bottles.

Recollect that it is Dr. Hoofland's German Remedies that are so universally used and so highly recommended; and do not allow the Druggists to induce you to take anything else that he may say is just as good; because he makes a larger profit on it. These Remedies will be sent by express to any locality upon application to the

The Cataract of Lodore.

BY ROBERT SOUTARY.

How does the water
Come down at Lodore?
From its sources which well
In the Tarn on the fell;
From its fountains
In the mountains,
It rills and it gills,—
Through moss and through brake
It runs and it creeps
For a while, till it sleeps
In its own little lake.
And thence, at departing,
Awakening and starting,
It runs through the reeds,
And away it proceeds
Through meadow and glade,
In the sun and in shade.
And through the wood shelter,
Among crags in its flurry,
Helter-skelter, hurry-skurry.
Here it comes sparkling,
And there it comes darkling,
Now smoking and frothing
Its tumult and wrath in,
Till in this rapid race
On which it is bent,
It reaches the place
Of its steep descent

The cataract strong
Then plunges along,
Striking and raging,
As if a war waging,
Its caverns and rocks among:
Rising and leaping,
Sinking and creeping,
Swelling and sweeping,
Showering and springing,
Flying and flinging,
Writhing and ringing,
Eddying and whisking,
Spouting and frisking,
Turning and twisting,
All around and around,
With endless rebound!
Smiting and fighting,
A sight to delight in,
Confounding, astounding,
Dizzying and deafening the ear with its sound.

Dividing and gliding and sliding,
And falling and bawling and sprawling,
And driving and riving and striving,
And sprinkling and twinkling and wrinkling,
And sounding and bounding and rounding,
And bubbling and troubling and doubling,
And grumbling and rumbling and tumbling.
And clattering and battering and shattering;
Retreating and meeting and beating and sheeting,
Delaying and straying and playing and spraying
Advancing and prancing and glancing and dancing,
Recoiling, turmoiling, and toiling and boiling,
And gleaming and streaming and steaming and beaming,
And rushing and flushing and brushing and gushing,
And flapping and rapping and clapping and slapping,
And curling and whirling and purling and twirling,
And thumping and plumping and bumping and jumping,
And dashing and flashing and splashing and clashing.
And so never ending but always descending,
Sounds and motions forever and ever are blending.
All at once and all o'er with a mighty uproar:
And this way the water comes down at Lodore.

Old Boys.

The Old Boy is of erect form, with an elasticity of motion that belies his age; his cheek is like the "rose in the snow," and his countenance wears a smiling expression at all times, as if his thoughts were good company. He loves to doze a little after dinner, and invariably wakes up to tell a dream about something that happened years ago, when he was a school-boy. "Ah! that reminds me," he says with a relish, and then he carries you back forty years or more when he was at the farm, and used to go to school winters and work summers; and he tells you how he learned Murray's grammar, and Goldsmith's geography, and Dilworth's spelling book; how he took the prettiest girl to singing school, and wrote large hand copy by a tallow dip when he got home; how he rode ten miles to meeting on Sunday, and was married in the first coat of "boughten" cloth he ever had; and how he and his wife toiled, and suffered, and loved together until one went first, "and, please God,' with a smile and a sob, 'we were young and old together, and will soon be young again and keeping company with one another forever."

I remember two Old Boys who were so full of fun and frolic that no husking party or social gathering was ever complete without them. They romped with the children, and flirted with the girls, and made love to the grandmothers, and danced old minuets with an odd mixture of gallantry and grace. I never knew them to do but one really foolish thing, and that was to attempt to stand on their heads at a haying frolic; and, having attained that inverted position, they could not get back again, but looked like two enormous V's and rained their beavers irretrievably.

The Old Boy goes out of the world just as pleasantly as he stood in it. He has always taken God at His word, and does not need any late interpretation of His promises. He does not want to reconstruct Heaven any more than he did earth, and is quite sure it will be high enough, and broad enough, and bright enough to suit him, and so he folds his hands quietly over his finished life-work and goes to meet his Master with a smile on his lips.

Ah! the genial friendships of those Old Boys! The remembrance of half a century in the cordial shake of the hand, the beaming look, the friendly, cozy dinner or supper, with the very same dishes they remember you liked, and the talk of our by-gone days, until you actually seem to hear

"The tones of a voice that is still;
The touch of a vanished hand."

It is strange that they talk of pretty Mary Gray, as if she was still the girl of forty years ago. "It seems but yesterday," says one, "that I saw her home from singing school. "I had a curl of her hair," remarks another, "and it was like gold." He might have added, no gold could have bought it. "Boys," says a third solemnly, "I forgot to to tell you that when I was home last fall I heard that Hetty was dead. She was visiting with one of her grand children when she was taken down."

"Dead!" they cry in chorus, "Poor thing! she was a good girl, but we are none of us to travel the same road she has taken." And they begin to sentimentalize a little sadly and end by getting into the merriest and most harmless jests in the world.

"Oh! the harmless, happy lives of those Old Boys! The times and times they have helped some struggling soul to its feet, and never once said "I am holier than thou." The little deeds that have marked their way, like the shining footsteps of angels going straight to the better land.

Dear Old Boys! when your spectacles are laid aside, and your canes hung up, and your slippers put away, we know how much of the kindliness and gentleness of life has gone with you, and the remembrance of your happy lives will keep us from growing bitter, or morose, or old, until we meet again in the summer land of perpetual youth.—Packard's Monthly.

A MERITORIOUS ARTICLE.—We are tired of this idea of puffing humbug medicines that are constantly thrown into drug stores, and are merely an imposition upon community. But when an article comes into the market that is really worthy of comment, we are happy to make public acknowledgment trusting that some benefit may arise therefrom. Dr R V Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., is the proprietor of Dr Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and we take pleasure in calling attention to it because we know it to be a good article, and a sure cure for that loathsome disease, catarrh. It is sold by most druggists, or may be obtained for sixty cents through the mail by addressing the proprietor as above.—Cleveland Herald. 21-99

ABUSES OF THE FRANKING PRIVILEGE.—It appears from the Washington Correspondent of the New York Tribune that there are many ways in which the franking privilege is abused. Sometimes members give away franks out of pure good nature. Sometimes they trade them off at wholesale in exchange for plants. Sometimes they are procured by loose women, who sell them.

Very likely. Sometimes, too, clerks dispose of their employers' goods "out of good nature;" but the law has a way of dealing with such trifles.

Curing the Appetite of Tobacco.

Scarcely a man can be found using tobacco who will not express the wish that he could abandon the expensive, filthy and injurious habit, yet the number, who really make an effort to quit its use is small. For the purpose of aiding any who may sincerely desire to abandon the habit, we give the following rules, prescribed by Rev George Trask: 1. Make the most of your will. Drop tobacco and resolve never to use it again in any form. 2 Go to an apothecary and buy ten cents worth of gentian root, coarsely ground. 3. Take as much of it after each meal, or oftener, as amounts to a common quid of fine cut or cavendish. 4. Chew it well and swallow all the saliva. 5. Continue this a few weeks, and you will come off conquerer; then thank God and thank us. Mr Trask gives the following reasons in support of his remedy. 1. Gentian is a tonic, bitter in taste, and will do much to neutralize and allay your taste for tobacco 2. Gentian is a nervine. It will brace up your relaxed and flabby nerves, and save you from the awful goneness under which victims agonize. 3. Gentian for a short time is an innocent substitute for the quid or pipe. It employs the mouth, beguiles the attention, and gives a helping hand to a drowning man.

TONIC STIMULANTS.

It is conceded by all who know anything about tonic bitters, that the purest, most skillfully prepared and efficacious is Mishler's Herb Bitters, known all over the world as the Great Household Remedy.

Seven years ago the Plantation Bitters were but little known. To-day there is not a nook or corner of our land where they are not found and used. The sale has reached the enormous number of five millions of bottles annually, and it is constantly increasing. It only shows what can be done with a really good medicine, and a systematic course of making it known. Perhaps no medicine in the world was ever so deservedly popular as the Plantation Bitters. Go where you will among the rich or poor, and you will always find these bitters in use. Their merit has become an established fact, and we cordially recommend them in cases of dyspepsia, loss of appetite, chills and fever, headache, &c.

GREAT DISTRIBUTION

OF THE

YOUNGSTOWN PERSONAL PROPERTY AND REAL ESTATE ASSOCIATION.

THIS ASSOCIATION, established in the city of Youngstown, Ohio, proposes to distribute among its Shareholders, by Public Drawing, to commence at 10 o'clock, A. M.,

ON THE 28TH OF APRIL, 1869.

AT EXCELSIOR HALL, in said City, a large amount of Personal Property and Real Estate, the property of the Association.

Shares.

Shares are issued by the Association at $5.00 each—half and quarter shares in proportion. Each share is numbered and entitles the holder of the certificate of said share to such article of personal or real property as may be distributed to it at the drawing. Half and quarter shares to have half and quarter interests in the property.

Distribution.

Every article to be distributed will be numbered in a schedule prepared by the officers of the Association, and a printed copy will be furnished to every shareholder. The drawing will be superintended by a committee of five disinterested gentlemen. Numbers corresponding to the numbers of all the certificates of shares, and numbers representing all the articles of property to be distributed, will be placed in different receptacles. One number will be drawn from each receptacle and the holder of the certificate whose number is drawn shall be entitled to the article whose number is drawn to it.

Real Estate.

The Real Estate of the Association consists of a large number of building lots, now vacant, and other lots on which are erected dwelling houses with suitable appurtenances, furnishing very desirable residences. This property is all within the City of Youngstown, and may be more particularly specified as follows:

City Lots.

FIFTY Lots, from fifty to one hundred feet front by one hundred and fifty feet deep, situated in the south-east part of the city in close proximity to the immense iron works, comprising rolling mills, nail factories and furnaces, of Brown, Bonnell & Co—to the Himrod Furnaces—to the foundries and machine shops of Heuer Hamilton & Co, and of Ward, Margerum & Co—to the bolt and nut factory of the Youngstown Manufacturing Co—to the depot of the Lawrence Railroad Co, and to other manufacturing and business establishments. They lie on the western bank of the Mahoning river, a short distance south and east of the Presque Isle street bridge, and front on Gibson, Park, Vine, Packard, Grand, and River streets, furnishing admirable building sites. The soil allows the construction of dry cellars, and durable wells of excellent water are attainable by digging to a moderate depth. Lots valued at $500 each.

Dwelling Houses and Lots.

These consist of TEN new frame houses, nicely painted outside and inside and in perfect order, and are located as follows:

FIVE on Scott street in the northern part of the city, and but a few rods from Wick avenue, the Fifth avenue or Euclid street of the city, into which Scott street runs at right angles. They are two stories and contain each six rooms, four below and two above, on lots fifty by one hundred and eighty feet, and will be fitted up for gas early in the spring, or as soon as pipes can be laid along Scott street, being extended already up Wick avenue. Valued at $3300 each, and rent at $330 per annum.

FIVE on Liberty street (formerly Holmes' road) and Rayen avenue, in the north-west quarter of the city, a few rods from the Cleveland and Mahoning R R depot. They are designated by numbers on a plat. No 1, corner of Liberty street and Rayen avenue, is two stories, has one grate, contains three rooms below and two above, papered, and a cellar kitchen. Lot sixty-five front front by one hundred and twenty-one feet deep. Nos 2, 3 and 4 on Liberty streets are of three stories each, has two grates; size of lots, No 2 57 feet front by 121 deep; No 3 is 18 feet front by 98 deep; No 4 is 47½ front, 93 feet rear, 109½ north side and 88¾ south side on Pine street: No 5 on Rayen avenue is of two stories with four rooms below and two above, and cellar kitchen. Lot 43 front by 122 deep. Valued at $3000 each and rent for $300 per annum.

Horses.

SIX celebrated blooded horses, pacers and trotters, all of whom have won purses and all perfectly sound and in good condition. They are

GRAY EAGLE—can pace his mile in 2:20. His biggest race was at Pittsburg, in 1867. First heat 2:22½. 2d heat 2:23½ 3d heat 2:24½. 4th heat 2:24¼; and 5th heat 2:25. Since that he has made better time, and is considered the best pacer in this part of the country. Valued at $1800.

MIKE GOODWIN, the best trotter in the west. He has lately trotted in Akron, Youngstown and Ravenna Ohio, and Jamestown, N Y, and won every race. Valued at $2,500.

BAY TOM, Trotter: a fine young blooded horse, can be made to go his mile in $2:40 or less, won his first race in Youngstown Driving Park, in the fall of 1868. Valued at $800.

HONEST JANE can trot her mile in less than 2:40. Has won several important races in this part of the country—has a wide reputation. Valued at $900.

QUEEN EMMA—Trotter—time 2:40—known in the southern part of the state as the Page Mare. Sire, Abdallah Chief: age, six years: perfectly gentle, and one of the most promising young mares in the country. Valued at $1200.

WILD TURKEY—Trotter—time, 2:40—has made his mile in less—has won several races—is well known in Eastern Ohio and Western Pennsylvania. Valued at $1200.

Clothing.—Over Coats from $30 to $60: Dress Coats from $20 to $40, and Suits of Clothes from $25 to $60, to be made to measure after the drawing, and to be of the value specified in the schedule or in their place other articles of Clothing of like value.

Miscellaneous.

A variety of Miscellaneous Articles, all of worth and value. The total number of articles to be distributed is Fourteen Hundred, and no article of less value than Five Dollars.

Can you get up a club of 10, 20, 30 or more, and make an investment in this manner? For a club of One Hundred Dollars take, say,

Ten Whole Certificates.....$5 00
Ten half.....do 2 50
Forty quarter do ..... 20 00—$100

This gives you 55 chances to get your investment back, and the probabilities are that in this assortment you must make money. You see there is one chance in ten in whole certificates, and four chances in ten in quarter certificates. The safest plan is quarter shares, as you increase your chances, but at the same time decrease the amount you will draw. A half share draws one-half of any thing, a whole share the entire article. We shall be glad to hear from you at any time.

Summary.

The officers of this Association pledge themselves that the utmost fairness shall be used in the management and in the distribution, that the articles are all of genuine worth and as represented: that the title to Real Estate is indisputable, and that all the Personal Property and Deeds of the Real Estate, will be in readiness and delivered immediately after the Drawing. Furthermore, the Treasurer binds himself, in case anything should occur to stop the progress of the enterprise and the drawing does not take place, that the money paid for certificates will be repaid at the hardware store of W & J A Packard Youngstown, Ohio.

All letters containing remittances addressed to A J Packard, Treasurer, Youngstown, Ohio, will meet prompt response and certificates of shares will be forwarded by return mail. All letters of inquiry, &c, as above, or to the Secretary.

Officers.
